

invite you to attend a workshop entitled

Legal and tax aspects of Polish investments in the US

Tuesday, May 31 2016, 10:00 am – 3:30 pm

Wardynski & Partners, Al. Ujazdowskie 10, Warsaw
(entrance from ul. Matejki 4)

The workshop is intended to help Polish investors, regardless of the stage of their development, identify and effectively solve legal and tax issues arising in connection with the planned entry onto the US market, from the moment of deliberations on the investment until possible withdrawal. During the meeting, practical principles for co-operating with American partners, including lawyers will be presented. The topics will be supported by actual examples of entities that are in the process of or have completed the investment process in the US.

Invitations are being issued to a select group of people. We reserve the right to limit the number of attendees or the number of attendees representing the same entity. The workshop will be held in English with limited possibility of translation. Should you require simultaneous translation during the meeting, please inform us when registering.

RSVP by 25th May 2016 to

Monika Boguszewska, e-mail: monika.boguszewska@wardynski.com.pl, tel.: (+48) 22 437 82 00

PARTNERS

AGENDA

10:00 – 10:05	Welcome
10:05 – 10:35	Climate for Polish investments in the US Tony Housh, American Chamber of Commerce in Poland Agnieszka Kraińska, Wardyński & Partners
10:35 – 11:05	Forms of investment in the US Richard Willis, Alston & Bird Krzysztof Wojdyło, Wardyński & Partners
11:05 – 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 – 12:00	Protection of intellectual property rights in the US Sam Kaywood, Alston & Bird Dr Monika Górska, Wardyński & Partners
12:00 – 12:45	Lunch
12:45 – 13:30	Relations with investors Richard Willis, Alston & Bird Krzysztof Wojdyło, Wardyński & Partners
13:30 – 14:15	Tax effectiveness of investment in the US Sam Kaywood, Alston & Bird Joanna Prokurat, Wardyński & Partners
14:15 – 14:25	Coffee break
14:25 – 15:00	Disputes in the US and cooperation with the US lawyer Sam Kaywood, Alston & Bird Richard Willis, Alston & Bird
15:00 – 15:30	Discussion
15:30	End of the workshop

ABOUT WARDYŃSKI & PARTNERS

Wardyński & Partners was established in 1988. Drawing from the finest traditions of the legal profession in Poland, we focus on our clients' business needs, helping them find effective and practical solutions to their most difficult legal problems.

The firm is particularly noted among clients and competitors for its services in dispute resolution, M&A, intellectual property, real estate and title restitution.

The firm now has over 100 lawyers, providing legal services in Polish, English, French, German, Spanish, Russian, Czech and Korean. We have offices in Warsaw, Kraków, Poznań and Wrocław.

We share our knowledge and experience through our web portal for legal professionals and businesspeople (www.inprinciple.pl), the firm Yearbook, and the "Law and Practice" series. We are also the publishers of the first Polish-language legal app for mobile devices (Wardyński+), available as a free download at the App Store and Google Play.

ABOUT ALSTON & BIRD

Alston & Bird, a leading national and international firm, our people trust the people they work for, take pride in what they do, enjoy the people they work with and serve the communities in which they live. Our workplace culture has been praised as one of the most open and receptive in the United States, not only among law firms, but also among all businesses. Alston & Bird has been ranked on FORTUNE magazine's "100 Best Companies to work for" list for 16 consecutive years.

We have offices in Atlanta, Beijing, Brussels, Charlotte, Dallas, Los Angeles, New York, Raleigh, Silicon Valley and Washington, D.C.

