Summer Course in Advance European Law 19-28 2017

Centre of European Law Summer Course in Advanced European Law

The Dickson Poon School of Law

The Centre of European Law's 31st summer course in Advanced European Law provides an ideal opportunity for EU Law professionals and interested individuals with prior knowledge of EU Law to spend 8 days updating on current EU Law across a range of subjects. Tuition is given by KCL academic staff who are experts in their field.

The programme runs from 19 June – 28 June 2017, is held at our Strand campus, which is located in the heart of London's legal sector and you will meet and network with colleagues from various countries – social events are also included.

Full programme is given below and a booking link can be found here – please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further queries.

If you are likely to require accommodation in hall of residence or have any other queries then please contact me directly.

We hope it may be of interest to you and/or your colleagues
